GRADUATE WOMEN NSW (CANBERRA BRANCH) PRIZE IN COMPUTING AND ENGINEERING CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics may offer one prize known as the Graduate Women NSW (Canberra Branch) Prize in Computing and Engineering.

The objective of the prize is to encourage students who are enrolled in a degree of Bachelor in the ANU College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics or the ANU College of Science who identify as a woman and recognise outstanding academic achievement.

The value of the prize awarded is $500

The prize will be on offered in perpetuity.

Funding for this prize has been provided by Graduate Women NSW (Canberra Branch)

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic student. (A domestic student is considered - an Australian citizen, New Zealand citizen, holder of an Australian Permanent Resident visa or a permanent humanitarian visa)
- (b) enrolled in a degree of Bachelor in the ANU College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics; or
- (c) enrolled in a degree of Bachelor in the ANU College of Science

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of achieving the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark in the courses Artificial Intelligence (COMP3620) or Advanced Topics in Artificial Intelligence (COMP4620) or Robotics (ENGN4627)

A student is not eligible to be awarded the prize in any year if the student is making a second or subsequent attempt at any of the courses; or the student has previously pursued a course of study in a course, unit or subject (whether at the University or another tertiary education institution), the content of which, is in the opinion of the Associate Dean (Education), substantially similar to the content of any of the courses for which the prize is to be awarded.

The Dean or nominated representative of the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Dean or nominated representative of the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the ANU Medals Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to Dean or nominated representative of the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics no later than two (2) from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances, the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in Section 1 or clause 6 of the ANU Prizes Procedure; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.
