PEGGY AND STEPHEN TSANG PRIZE CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Law may offer one award known as the Peggy and Stephen Tsang Prize ('The Award').

The objective/s of the prize is to recognise the student(s) who has demonstrated a high level of academic excellence through being awarded the highest result in LAWS4237 Financial Markets and Takeovers at the ANU College of Law.

The value of the prize awarded is $1000. If two or more students achieve the same top mark, the prize awarded in that year shall be divided equally between them.

The prize will be on offer annually unless otherwise advised.

Funding for this prize has been provided by an ANU alumnus Jack Tsang, in memory of his parents Peggy and Stephen Tsang.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student; and
- (b) is enrolled in the course LAWS4237 Financial Markets and Takeovers at the ANU College of Law during the calendar year relevant to the award of the prize; and
- (c) achieved the best result in the course LAWS4237 Financial Markets and Takeovers as shown by the award of the highest mark.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit through the award of the highest mark in the course.

A student is not eligible to be awarded the prize if:

- (a) the student is making a second or subsequent attempt at the course; or
- (b) the student has previously pursued a course of study in a course, (whether at the University or another tertiary education institution), the content of which, is in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Law (or delegate), substantially similar to the content of the course for which the prize is to be awarded.

The ANU College of Law reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The ANU College of Law may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

If the course LAWS4237 Financial Markets and Takeovers ceases to be offered or is not offered in a given year, it is at the discretion of the Dean of the ANU College of Law (or delegate) to nominate a prize recipient who was enrolled in a course from the Corporate and Commercial Law specialisation.

Where required, the ANU Medals Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the ANU College of Law no later than two weeks from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in clause 6 of the ANU Prizes Procedure; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended; or
- (c) after five years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the ANU College of Law (or delegate) on the recommendation of the ANU College of Law Student and Education Support team.
