Hi s47F - Public Interest Conditional Exemptions - Personal Privacy

Yes, apologies for the delay!

My intake team will be the most appropriate contact for you – they will be able to assess your needs and determine how we can best help you. If you follow this link Health, safety & wellbeing | Australian National University \(anu.edu.au\) and scroll down to “How to book an appointment”, click on that and follow the directions, they will be in contact within five working days of you completing the form.

I hope you have a lovely weekend.

Cheers

Lisa

Hi Grady and Lisa

Thank you so much for getting back to me and sorry for the late response. Lisa, will you reach out to me to start discussing what is the most appropriate action moving forward?

Thanks,

From: Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) <dvc.academic@anu.edu.au>

Dear

I am aware that students who have access to the safe space on campus have different views. It is important for the space to remain safe, it is not a space for challenge or debate.

I have copied the Director of University Experience, Lisa Kennedy, into this email. I'm sure that Lisa or someone from her team will be able to meet with you so we can provide for your specific needs whether that is the safe space or an alternative arrangement. I hope you are going okay and we look forward to supporting you.

With kind regards

Grady.

Subject: Jewish Safe Space

Good Afternoon,

I heard that there is a Jewish safe space open for Jewish students on campus. I just wanted to check whether all Jewish students can access this, despite certain views and values. If so, can I please get access to this room?

Thank you,
