Administrative Arrangements

Meetings and Planning

17. The Committee shall hold ordinary meetings up to six times per year on dates determined by the Committee.

18. A forward meeting plan, including meeting dates, location and agenda items, is agreed by the Committee each year. The forward meeting plan covers all its responsibilities, as detailed in this Charter.

19. The Chair may convene an extraordinary meeting and is required to convene an extraordinary meeting if asked to do so by at least 50% of the Committee members.

20. The Chair convenes and presides at all meetings of the Committee at which they are present. The Chair has a deliberative and a casting vote on all matters before a meeting of the Committee. When the Chair is unable to preside at a meeting, the Deputy Chair presides. Where both the Chair and Deputy Chair are unable to preside at a meeting, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) presides.

21. The procedure at meetings of the Committee is determined by the person presiding over the meeting, taking into account the advice of the Committee members.

22. All matters relating to individual persons, including appointments, enrolment candidacy for degrees, personal details, performance and conduct are treated as confidential. Confidential items are so marked on the agenda and taken before any observers are admitted to the meeting. At the beginning of the meeting, members of the Committee may ask that other particular items on the agenda be treated as confidential and the Committee will determine this. During the course of the meeting, the Chair may declare a particular item to be confidential and observers are asked to leave until consideration of that item has finished. Where feasible, all confidential items are grouped together at the end of the agenda so that observers and invitees may leave the meeting and not be required to wait during discussion.

Attendance at Meetings and Quorums

23. A quorum consists of at least 50 per cent of Committee members who hold office for the time being.

24. The Committee will decide, as part of the forward work plan, whether meetings for the following year will be held in person or via videoconferencing. The Secretariat shall arrange the videoconferencing facility.
25. An appointed/elected member of a Committee who is unable to attend a meeting of the Committee may nominate an alternate from the same category of membership to attend the meeting on their behalf. An alternate must be a person who would otherwise be eligible to be chosen as a member of the Committee.
26. An ex officio member of a Committee who is unable to attend a meeting of the Committee may nominate an alternate to attend the meeting on their behalf. The nominated alternate must be a senior member of staff from the same organisational unit as the member.
27. Alternates have the same rights and responsibilities as Committee members.
28. Meetings of the Committee are open to members of the ANU Council, academic and professional staff of University and to undergraduate and postgraduate students of the University, as observers. Observers register their intention to attend a meeting with the Committee Secretary in advance of the meeting; and are admitted by the Committee Secretary on a "first come first served" basis and within the constraints of available space in the meeting venue.
29. Observers may only speak if invited to do so by the Chair and in such cases may only speak on the particular issue about which they were invited to speak. Observers may not bring recording equipment or cameras into the meeting.
30. The Chair may request any other ANU staff and/or external party to attend Committee meetings or participate in certain agenda items.

Sub-Committees and Working Parties

31. The Committee may establish one or more Sub-Committees or Working Parties to assist it in the carrying out of its functions.
32. The Committee may also disestablish any of its Sub-Committees or Working Parties.

Secretariat

33. The Corporate Governance and Risk Office (CGRO) provides secretariat support to the Committee.
34. The Division of Student Administration and Academic Services (DSAAS), other staff in the Academic Portfolio, and Committee members are responsible for the development and preparation of reports and other papers to be presented to the Committee. Such reports and papers are submitted to the Corporate Governance and Risk Office for inclusion in the agenda papers.

35. The Corporate Governance and Risk Office ensures the agenda and supporting papers for each meeting are circulated (via the Committee's SharePoint site) after approval from the Chair and at least seven days before the meeting.

36. The Corporate Governance and Risk Office ensures the minutes of the meetings are prepared and maintained. Minutes are approved by the Chair for circulation to each member of the Committee.

Conflicts of Interest

37. Committee members declare any material personal interests, whether they are actual, potential or perceived, at the start of each meeting or before discussion of the relevant agenda item or topic. Details of material personal interests declared by Committee members, and actions taken, are appropriately recorded in the minutes.

Induction

38. The Corporate Governance and Risk Office maintains a program of induction for Committee members to assist them to meet their Committee responsibilities. The Academic Portfolio assists the Corporate Governance and Risk Office in this task whenever requested.

Assessment and Review

39. The Chair, in consultation with the Academic Board Chair, initiates every second year a review of the performance of the Committee, and this Charter, with appropriate input sought from Committee members, the University Executive, College Deans and any other relevant stakeholders. The review of performance is conducted on a self-assessment basis unless otherwise determined by the Academic Board.

Approved by resolution of the Academic Board meeting 1/2025 held on 11 March 2025.
