

GRADUATE WOMEN NSW (CANBERRA BRANCH) PRIZE IN CHEMISTRY

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the Research School of Chemistry in the ANU College of Science may offer a prize known as the Graduate Women NSW (Canberra Branch) prize.

The objective/s of the prize are to recognise outstanding academic achievement and to encourage female identifying students enrolled in a degree of Bachelor in the ANU College of Science.

The value of the prize awarded is $500.

The prize will be offered in perpetuity.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the Graduate Women NSW (Canberra Branch).

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to a female identifying ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic student.
- (b) enrolled in a degree of Bachelor in the ANU College of Science.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

The award is available each year to a female identifying ANU student who is:

- (a) enrolled in a program leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor in the ANU College of Science; and
- (b) achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark in the course Chemistry 2 (CHEM1201).

A student is not eligible to be awarded the prize in any year if:

- (c) the student is making a second or subsequent attempt at any of the courses; or
- (d) the student has previously pursued a course of study in a course, unit or subject (whether at the University or another tertiary education institution), the content of which, is in the opinion of the Associate Dean (Education), substantially similar to the content of any of the courses for which the prize is to be awarded.

If, in any year, two or more students equally merit the award of the prize, the prize awarded in that year shall be divided equally between them.

The Research School of Chemistry reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Research School of Chemistry may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to The Research School of Chemistry no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Director research school of chemistry on the recommendation of the Chair of the Selection Committee in consultation with the Donor.
