

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

BRYNREFAIL PRIZE FOR FIRST YEAR CLASSICAL LANGUAGES CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics at the College of Arts and Social Sciences may offer a prize known as the Brynrefail Prize for First Year Classical Languages.

The objective of the prize is to support and encourage students who excel in the field of Classical languages.

The value of the prize awarded is $1000.

The prize will be on offer annually.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the Lord Mayor's Charitable Foundation, one of Australia's leading philanthropic organisations.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student
- (b) is enrolled in an undergraduate degree program in the College of Arts and Social Sciences
- (c) has undertaken the two first year courses in either the Greek or Latin major offered by the School of Literature, Language and Linguistics.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

The prize shall be awarded to the student who achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest average mark in the two first year courses in either the Greek or Latin major.

If, in any year, two or more students equally merit the award of the prize, the prize awarded for that year shall be divided equally between them. If, in any year, no student achieves results that, in the opinion of the Dean, College of Arts and Social Sciences, justify the awarding the prize, the prize shall not be awarded for that year.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the Scholarships and Prizes Officer, College of Arts and Social Sciences, no later than 30 days from notification

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Head of School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics
