

CANCER COUNCIL ACT PATHOLOGY PRIZE YEAR FOUR

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the School of Medicine and Psychology may offer a prize known as The Cancer Council ACT Pathology Prize Year Four to a student enrolled in the final year of the Doctor of Medicine and Surgery (MChD) program.

The Academic Unit of Pathology at the School of Medicine and Psychology in conjunction with The Cancer Council ACT has instituted the Year Four Pathology Prize to promote knowledge of, and interest in, Pathology.

The prize is for a student who has demonstrated outstanding and comprehensive knowledge and application of pathology issues at the Year 4 level.

The value of the prize awarded is $500.

The prize will be on offer from 2024 to 2027.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the ACT Cancer Council

2. ELIGIBILITY

The prize available each year to the student who is:

- (i) enrolled in Year Four of the Doctor of Medicine and Surgery (MChD) Program; and
- (ii) Achieves the highest cumulative grade across all identified components of pathology assessed in the written and viva (OSCE) examinations in the Year Four examination and whose performance was assessed by the Selection Committee as outstanding and reflecting comprehensive knowledge and application of pathology at the Year Four level.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of student responses across all identified components of pathology assessed in the written and viva examinations in the final Year 4 examination. A failure in any pathology question included as part of this assessment makes a student ineligible for consideration of this prize.

A selection committee made up of the Director, School of Medicine and Psychology (or their nominee), and at least one member from the Academic Unit of Pathology at the School of Medicine and Psychology as nominated by the School.

A student is not eligible to be considered for the award of the prize if they require remediation for the Year Four examination.

The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the School of Medicine and Psychology no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- a. at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- b. if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- c. after 3 years

whichever is earliest.
