At ANU Careers and Employability, our team of qualified and highly specialised staff have been connecting industry with students for many years. We pride ourselves on assisting and advising employers on the best ways to attract and secure the ANU talent they are looking for. We offer a wide range of solutions to assist employers in the promotion of employment opportunities exclusive to ANU students.

The ANU has 6 academic colleges that house a number of schools and research centres which specialise in a range of disciplines - some unique in Australia and the region. As the central careers hub, we operate across every discipline area at ANU and our team can connect you with students at all year levels, and recent graduates up to 12 months after completion. Our industry partners include public, private, and not-for-profit sectors. We are interested in working with you to come up with creative ways to meet the needs of your organisation and can tailor strategies or explore new and innovative ways for you to engage with our students.

ANU Key Dates

Each semester consists of 12 weeks, plus a two-week break from classes mid-semester. We have identified the peak times for student engagement, so that your organisation can book an event at a time that suits both you and the students. Use the below guide to get the most bang for your buck.

- Students are highly engaged at this time, but slowly settling back in.
- We recommend booking events from week 2 (29 July) onwards. Students are settled back in but not swamped with work yet.
- Mondays and Fridays are generally not recommended.

22 JULY
Semester 2 begins

EARLY SEMESTER

- The first 6-8 weeks of semester are the peak time for student engagement. We prefer for most events to take place during this time.
- Students start to get busy with assessments after week 6, and this tends to peak between weeks 10 - 12. We do not recommend events during this time.

- We typically do not run events during this time as many students will not be on campus.
- Students will start looking for internships/vacation programs around this time, so it's a good time to start promoting them.
- Events can be booked after 16 September, but attendance will likely be lower than earlier in the semester.

MID-SEM
Teaching break from
2-16 Sep

LATE SEMESTER

- Student engagement with events is at its lowest during this time due to upcoming exams and assessments. Events are not recommended, but exceptions can be made.
- The semester ends on 25 October, with exams following shortly after.

1 Career Central

We have officially switched from ANU CareerHub to ANU Career Central (powered by TargetConnect). ANU Career Central is a powerful platform that is designed to enhance your engagement with our students, from listing job opportunities to participating in our employability activities or perfecting your organisation profile, which will be visible to all ANU students!

To begin, simply register and set up your organisation's profile.

To make this process quick and easy, please have the following ready:

- Organisation ABN
- Company logo
- Brief overview of your organisation
- Certificate of Currency (CURRENT Public Liability Insurance)

Once approved, you will be able to access the platform.

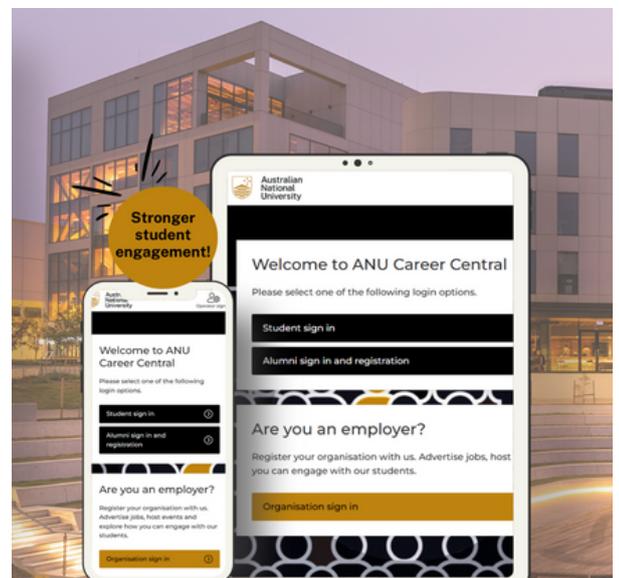

Start registering to our Semester 1 2025 employer engagement activities!

Simply register your organisation and login into the platform. Search 'Events' within your dashboard to discover Careers Week 2025, Tertiary to Work 2025 and other Semester 1 opportunities. Click on the relevant event link and complete the registration details.

Please get in touch with the ANUCE Employer Engagement Team if you have any queries or require help matching engagement opportunities to your needs.

ANU CareerHub decommissioned:

Please note that ANU CareerHub will be decommissioned at the end of 2024, so it is important for your organisation to register on Career Central by 1st December 2024 to ensure a smooth transition and continuous engagement with ANU students.
