Dear Kiaran

Thank you for your time today to hear about the proposed realignments at ANU. We have now spoken to all Deans, GMs and impacted five School Directors, two Centre Directors and one Institute Director.

I am confirming that you can now feel free to speak with your fellow Deans should you wish to ahead of Thursday's all staff meeting. I appreciate that you will be considering your specific College circumstances as well as the University as a whole for your response during the consultation phase.

I also confirm that you can now reach out to your impacted School, Centre and Institute Directors (Fenner, CPAS and MSI). You can also reach out to the two impacted Directors (JCSMR and SoMP) from the College of Health and Medicine that are being proposed for realignment to your College.

I know how challenging this next phase will be so please know that I'm here to meet and talk through anything you need to discuss.

Kind regards,

Rebekah
