

ANN BATES UNDERGRADUATE PRIZE FOR INDONESIAN STUDIES

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific may offer a prize known as the Ann Bates Undergraduate Prize for Indonesian Studies.

The objective of the prize is to award a student who has achieved the best result in an Honours program with a thesis on Indonesia.

The value of the prize awarded is $2000.00

The prize will be on offer from 2023, indefinitely.

The Prize was created in 2004 to honour the late Ann Coomb Bates (nee Carnie), a believer in university studies contributing to understanding between people of different cultures.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student.
- (b) enrolled in an Honours degree program
- (c) completing Honours with a thesis on Indonesia

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

The prize shall be awarded to the student who achieves the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark in an Honours course with a thesis that focusses on Indonesia. For the purpose of the award of the prize, the term 'Indonesia' may be understood to include the Malay world and the whole of the Indonesian archipelago, including East Timor.

The College of Asia and the Pacific reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the ANU Medals Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to The College of Asia and the Pacific no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific on the recommendation of the Registrar.
