

AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY FOR PARASITOLOGY PRIZE

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Science may offer prize(s) known as the Australian Society for Parasitology Prize ("ASP").

The objective of the prize are to award Australian Universities identified as offering a suitable course or courses in parasitology, for presentation to the best undergraduate student in parasitology who has achieved the highest mark/grade. The course(s) must be taught by a financial member of the ASP of more than one year standing and must comprise at least 30% parasitology.

The value of the prize awarded is $400.

The prize will be on offer from year to year on request to the Australian Society for Parasitology.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the Australian Society for Parasitology.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student who has enrolled in a program leading to the award of a degree of Bachelor in the College of Science;
- (b) achieved the highest mark in the parasitology course(s) in the year of the award:

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of student who achieves the highest mark in the parasitology course(s) in the year of the award.

The College of Science reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College of Science may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the College of Science no later than two weeks from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Deputy Dean (Education) on the recommendation of the Head of Biology Teaching and Learning Centre.
