The Bridge-Ada Lovelace Prize

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics may offer one (1) prize known as the Bridge-Ada Lovelace Prize

The objective of the prize is to improve gender equality in STEM (Science, Technology & Mathematics) by the acknowledgment of a high-achieving woman student who has demonstrated a high level of academic excellence by receiving the highest mark in COMP4550 Advanced Computing Research Methods and who has successfully completed COMP2120 Software Engineering.

The value of the prizes awarded is $2000

The prize will be on offer from 2023 to 2027.

Funding for this prize has been provided by Bridge IT Engineering Pty Ltd.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student. (A domestic student is considered - an Australian citizen, New Zealand citizen, holder of an Australian Permanent Resident visa or a permanent humanitarian visa) who identifies as woman
- (b) enrolled in the Bachelor of Advanced Computing (Honours) or the Bachelor of Advanced Computing (Research and Development) (Honours) in the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics
- (c) has achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest mark in the course COMP4450 Advanced Computing Research Methods and has successfully completed COMP2120 Software Engineering

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of achieving the highest mark in the course COMP4450 Advanced Computing Research Methods and successful completion of COMP2120 Software Engineering

The Dean or nominated representative of the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The Dean or nominated representative of the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the ANU Medals Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to Dean or nominated representative of the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics no later than two (2) weeks from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in Section 1 or clause 6 of the ANU Prizes Procedure; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the (Dean/DVC) on the recommendation of the (Dean of the College of Engineering, Computing and Cybernetics).
