

CRITIQUES DE FILM FRENCH STUDENT FILM CRITIC PRIZE

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics and the Embassy of France may offer one prize known as the Critiques de Film French Student Film Critic Prize.

The objective/s of the prize is to recognise the best film critique written by a current ANU French student as part of the Critiques de Film French Student Film Critics' Program. The program is a competition to find the best English-language review of a French film broadcast by the SBS television channel in the year of the award.

The value of the prize awarded is $2,000.

The prize will be on offer annually from 2022.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the Embassy of France.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student
- (b) enrolled in an undergraduate or postgraduate coursework program, or a postgraduate research degree program in the School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics in the College of Arts and Social Sciences
- (c) currently enrolled in the study of French (including introductory, continuing, intermediate, or advanced courses; or studying French language, themes or topics in a research program)

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of the quality of the submitted film review, including the writing standard, depth and relevance of analysis and engagement with issues relating to French culture, history, society and/or identity. Students' submissions will not be judged on the basis of the level of French they are studying, that is, a beginner student has an equal chance of selection as an advanced student.

The selection committee will comprise two academic representatives from the French Program in the School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics, a current student selected as the student editor of the Critiques de Film program and a representative from the Embassy of France. The selection committee reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The selection committee may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the CASS Scholarships and Prizes Officer no later than two weeks from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities;
- 3) provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean, College of Arts and Social Sciences on the recommendation of the Chair of Selection Committee.

7. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE
