

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES DAVID CAMPBELL PRIZE CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the School of History may offer a prize known as the David Campbell Prize.

The objective of the prize is to encourage students who show potential the field of Australian History.

The value of the prize awarded is $500.

The prize will be on offer annually.

The prize was established by Professor Manning Clark and commemorates the late David Campbell (1915-1979). David Campbell was an Australian poet who wrote over 15 volumes of prose and poetry. Campbell frequently wrote for the Bulletin and was editor of poetry anthologies including the 1966 edition of Australian Poetry and in 1970 Modern Australian Poetry. A recipient of several Australian literary awards, he was also a senior fellow (1973–76) of the Literature Board of the Australia Council for the Arts.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student
- (b) enrolled in a program leading to a Bachelor degree in the ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences
- (c) enrolled in an Australian History course offered by the School of History

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of achieving the highest result for a major piece of written work, which in the opinion of the selection committee shows the most promise in the writing of Australian History as a branch of literature.

The scholarship will be offered to the student by a selection committee comprising of at least two representatives from the School of History, chaired by the Head of School.

If, in any year, two or more students equally merit the award of the prize, the prize awarded for that year shall be divided equally between them. If, in any year, no student achieves results that, in the opinion of the Dean, College of Arts and Social Sciences, justify the awarding the prize, the prize shall not be awarded for that year.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to College of Arts and Social Sciences no later than four weeks from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) if the funding no longer exists
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Head of School.
