CBE Research School of Accounting Helen Chin Prize CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics Research School of Accounting may offer a prize which shall be known as the Helen Chin Prize.

The objective of the prize is to award a student who achieved the best result in the BUSN3001 Accounting Theory course.

The value of the prize awarded is $500.

The prize will be on offer from 2023 to 2025.

This prize is established in honour of Helen Chin. Helen completed a Bachelor of Economics in 1981, majoring in Accounting and Economics. She was one of nine recipients of a University Medal that year, in recognition of her exceptional academic excellence across her studies.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student;
- (b) enrolled in an undergraduate program in CBE;
- (c) completing BUSN3001 Accounting Theory

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of the best result for the BUSN3001 Accounting Theory across two semesters in an academic year.

The ANU College of Business and Economics reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit.

If the course is no longer on offer, with the approval of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics following discussion with the donor, the prize shall be awarded for another course.

Where required, the ANU Medals Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the ANU College of Business and Economics (scholarships.cbe@anu.edu.au) no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances, the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor; and
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in Section 1 or clause 6 of the ANU Prizes Procedure; or
 - (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
 - (c) after 3 years
- whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of ANU College of Business and Economics on the recommendation of the Research School of Accounting.
