

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

MARK DICKENS PRIZE FOR LATIN CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics at the College of Arts and Social Sciences may offer a prize known as the Mark Dickens Prize for Latin.

The objective of the prize reward and encourage high-achieving students who excel in Classical languages.

The value of the prize awarded is $2500.

The prize will be on offer from 2019 to 2021.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the Mark Dickens Student Support Program.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who:

- (a) is a domestic or international student
- (b) is enrolled in an undergraduate degree program in the College of Arts and Social Sciences
- (c) has undertaken two Intermediate Latin courses offered by the School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics

SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

The prize shall be awarded to the student who achieved the best result as shown by the award of the highest cumulative mark in the Intermediate Latin courses.

A student is not eligible to be awarded the prize if the student is making a second or subsequent attempt at the nominated course.

If, in any year, two or more students equally merit the award of the prize, the prize awarded for that year shall be divided equally between them. If, in any year, no student achieves results that, in the opinion of the Dean, College of Arts and Social Sciences, justify the awarding the prize, the prize shall not be awarded for that year.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

3. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the Prizes and Scholarships Officer no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

4. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

5. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Head of School of Literature, Languages and Linguistics.
