NATIONAL SECURITY COLLEGE PRIZE CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the National Security College may offer up to four prizes per year known as The National Security College Prize.

The objective/s of the prize are to recognise students who achieved the best overall results, as shown by the highest weighted average mark (WAM) over the course of their studies in the Master of National Security Policy or the Master of National Security Policy (Advanced).

The value of the prize/s awarded is $500 each.

The prize will be on offer from 2022 to 2024.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the National Security College.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student;
- (b) enrolled in the Master of National Security Policy or Master of National Security Policy (Advanced); and
- (c) graduating from the degree in the academic year of offer of the prize.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit. The prize shall be awarded in each graduation round to the two students who achieve the highest weighted average marks (WAM) over the duration of their program.

The National Security College reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the University Medal Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the National Security College no later than 14 calendar days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in Section 1 or clause 6 of the ANU Prizes Procedure; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the College of Asia and the Pacific on the recommendation of the Head of the College (or nominee).

7. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE
