SCHOOL OF ART & DESIGN DRAWING PRIZE CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the School of Art & Design may offer a prize that shall be known as the School of Art & Design Drawing Prize (“the award”).

The objective of the prize is to recognise the outstanding artistic merit of School of Art & Design students and provide shortlisted applicants with an opportunity to exhibit their work, thus promoting their developing practice(s) to the community.

The value of the prize awarded is $1,500.

The prize is distributed annually.

This prize was originally established and is supported by Jan Brown, former long serving member of staff and Head of Foundation at the ANU School of Art & Design, and an important Australian artist.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who is:

- (a) a domestic or international student;
- (b) enrolled in a course with any of the following course codes in the second semester of the year of the award – ARTV (Visual Arts), DESN (Design), DESA (Design Arts) or ARTH (Art History and Art Theory).

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of a completed online application, following a call for submission by the School of Art & Design Gallery.

A panel of two members of academic staff from the School of Art & Design, nominated by the Head of School, will make a shortlist for exhibition.

Shortlisted works are exhibited in the School of Art & Design Project Space. The exhibition may be presented virtually (online), at the discretion of the Head of School, if extenuating circumstances prevent a physical exhibition from being held.

The award is selected on the basis of artistic merit either by a visiting artist nominated by the Head of School, or by the Head of School (“the judge”).

The judge reserves the right to make no award if they consider there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The judge may also vary the number of prizes by splitting the prize between recipients if multiple winners are identified.

Where required, the ANU Medals Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the CASS Scholarships and Prizes Officer no later than 10 business days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement
- 3) allow images of their work to be used to promote the award and the School of Art & Design

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in Section 1 or clause 6 of the ANU Prizes Procedure; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (c) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean on the recommendation of the Head of School, School of Art & Design.

7. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE

All enquiries regarding the prize and changes, issues, or further information after acceptance should be made to:
