SIR GEORGE KNOWLES MEMORIAL PRIZE CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Law may offer one award known as the Sir George Knowles Memorial Prize ('The Award').

The objective of the prize is to recognise the student(s) who has demonstrated a high level of academic excellence through being awarded the best result in a minimum of four law courses at the ANU College of Law as shown by the award of the overall highest average mark.

The value of the prize awarded is $500. If two or more students achieve the same top mark, the prize awarded in that year shall be divided equally between them.

The prize will be on offer annually unless otherwise advised.

Funding for this prize has been provided by the family of Sir George Knowles. Sir George Shaw Knowles was an Australian public servant and diplomat. He served as departmental secretary of the Attorney-General's Department, and was then the inaugural Australian High Commissioner to South Africa.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU student who:

- (a) Is a domestic or international student; and
- (b) Is enrolled full-time in a program leading to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Laws (Honours) or Juris Doctor program at the ANU College of Law; and
- (c) achieved the best result in the year, as shown by the overall highest average mark over a minimum of four law courses, taken in the year relevant to the award of the prize, offered by the ANU College of Law.

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

Selection is made on the basis of academic merit through the award of the overall highest average mark in a minimum of four law courses in the relevant calendar year.

The ANU College of Law reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The ANU College of Law may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

Where required, the ANU Medals Committee will be available for qualitative or subjective assessment determinants if a decision is not reached within the College to determine prize winners.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of a prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to the ANU College of Law no later than two weeks from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the Publication of their name.

In some instances the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement.

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in clause 6 of the ANU Prizes Procedure; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended; or
- (c) after five years

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the ANU College of Law on the recommendation of the ANU College of Law Student and Education Support team.

7. CONTACT WITH THE COLLEGE
