

SIR ROLAND WILSON PRIZE

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each year the ANU College of Business and Economics may offer one prize known as the Sir Roland Wilson Prize.

The objective of the prize is to award a student who achieved the best result as shown by being among the five students who achieved the highest overall aggregate result in the compulsory core courses and who contributed the most to the program in terms of leadership and good citizenship.

The value of the prize is $1500.00.

The prize was established in 1998 to honour Sir Roland Wilson.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each year to an ANU Student who is:

- a) domestic or international student;
- b) completed the requirements for the award of the Master of Business Administration program in the ANU College of Business and economics;
- c) was among the five students who achieved the highest overall GPA in the Master of Business and Administration; and
- d) contributing most to the program in terms of leadership and good citizenship in the period of his or her enrolment.

3. SELECTION AND CRITERIA

The prize shall be awarded to the student who is among the five students who achieved the highest overall GPA in the Master of Business and Administration Program, and who has contributed the most to the program in terms of leadership and good citizenship.

The ANU College of Business and Economics reserves the right to make no award if it considers there is no applicant of sufficient merit. The College may also vary the number of prizes if multiple winners are identified by splitting the prize.

If any of the core courses for the Master of Business Administration Program ceases to be offered, the prize shall be awarded in respect of another course the content of which, in the opinion of the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics, is similar to the content of the course above.

4. RECIPIENT OBLIGATIONS

The awarding of the prize is based on the information provided to the University. A prize may be declined by the recipient once they have been notified as the prize winner. This must be provided in writing to The College of Business and Economics no later than 30 days from notification.

If the prize is accepted by the recipient, they agree to the publication of their name.

In some instances, the recipient may be asked to:

- 1) Write a letter of thanks to the donor;
- 2) Participate in marketing activities and/or asked to provide a reflective statement

5. REVIEW OF PRIZE

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) at the conclusion of the period outlined in section 1; or
- (b) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended; or
- (c) after 3 years.

whichever is earliest.

6. VARIATION TO CONDITIONS OF AWARD

In exceptional circumstances and on a case-by-case basis, these conditions of award may be varied by the Dean of the ANU College of Business and Economics on the recommendation of the Registrar.
